I've got you under my skin.
Written by Cole Porter (1936)
Sung by Frank Sinatra - 1956

I have got you under my skin
I've got you deep in the heart of me
So deep in my heart

You're nearly a part of me
I've got you under my skin
I have tried so not to give in
I have said to myself this affair's
Never gonna go somewhere
But why should I try to resist

When baby I know so well
That I've got you under my skin
I would sacrifice anything
Come what might

For the sake of holding you near
In spite of a warning voice
That comes in the night

It repeats and it shouts in my ear :

"Don't you know blue-eyes
You never can win
Use your mentality
Wake up to reality"

But each time I do
Just the thought of you
Makes me stop before I begin
'cause I've got you under my skin
I'd sacrifice anything
Come what might

For the sake of having you near
In spite of a warning voice
That comes in the night

It repeats and it shouts in my ear :

"Don't you know you old fool
You never can win
Use your mentality
Wake up to reality"

But each time that I do
Just the thought of you
Makes me stop before I begin
'cause I've got you under my skin
And I love you (when you're) under my skin love... forever !
