

Expressing likes and dislikes

like, don't like, love, hate doing something

A. Read the sentences above and notice that when we want to say we like or dislike doing something we use an -ing form.

like/likes
don't/doesn't like + -ing form
love/loves
hate/hates

B. Your first task is to write the correct -ing form of the verbs in brackets.

Hi, there! I'm Michael and you can see me in the picture feeding the swans.

My family and I love (1) _____ (go) to the park at weekends. We like (2) _____ (have) picnics and love (3) _____ (be) near the animals. My father hates (4) _____ (cook) and my mother likes (5) _____ (make) sandwiches for all. My sister and I love (6) _____ (play) around in the park and (7) _____ (feed) the animals. My mother doesn't like (8) _____ (lie) on a blanket so she always likes (9) _____ (bring) a tablecloth and loves (10) _____ (watch) us while we play. The park is a very relaxing place because we love (11) _____ (listen) to the birds singing and we like (12) _____ (watch) the little rabbits running around. We all like the park mainly because we love (13) _____ (be) outdoors and (14) _____ (feel) free.

C. Look at the table below and tick (✓) what YOU like, don't like, love and hate doing.

	like		don't like		love		hate
	Mary	YOU	Mary	YOU	Mary	YOU	Mary	YOU go to the dentist			✓
