I hope you'll invite me for a job interview in Stratford-Upon-Avon .

John Hamlet

I've already played important parts in difficult plays in verse. I'm hard-working and handsome, with a loud voice.

In addition, I've got a good memory, which is very important when you want to do this job.

Yours sincerely,

I'm writing to apply for the job of actor in your Globe Theater. A friend of mine has told me you were looking for a good actor to play the part of Romeo in your new play.
