Dear Mrs Mayer:

I have read, in the Monster's job research section, of your need for a Web Designer. I believe that I have the credentials for the position.

I have worked for the Web site of a small food company : I have created the whole design of their Web site, and have developed the entire data base. As you can see from my resume, I worked several summers as an assistant of a Web Designer and moved up to Designer, in charge of the design of several Web sites (food, travels and Internet).

In addition to this practical experience, I have completed requirements for my Media Design degree. As you may know, Graph'Art is one of the few schools in France that offers such a specialized degree for the media design. I am confident that my Media Design degree, along with my years of experience, make me an excellent candidate for your job.

The Billy Wild Company's projects are familiar to me, and my aspiration is to work for a company that has your excellent reputation. I would welcome the opportunity to interview with you. I will contact you to answer any questions you may have.

Thank you for your consideration.
Sincerely,

Sylvain PIGNON.
