Agnès Pihuit
my-teacher.fr

May I buy a pumpkin, please ?

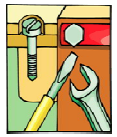
SHOPPING

the sweet shop

the supermarket

the department store

the electrical shop



the DIY (do-it-yourself) shop

the fishmonger's

the greengrocer's

the baker's

the butcher's

the toy shop

the florist's

the shoe repairer's

the shoe shop

the bookshop

the newsagent

the jeweller's

the boutique / Clothes shop

the sports shop

the hairdresser's

the chemist's

the stationer's

A GOOD DAY FOR SHOPPING !

You have a lot of things to do today.
Try to buy the right thing in the right shop.
Don't buy two things in the same shop.
Of course, you should ask polite questions :

"Excuse me, Sir. May I have...,please ?"
"Excuse me, Madam. Can I buy...,please ?"
"Good morning, Sir. Have you got...,please ?"
"Good afternoon, Madam. Do you sell...,please ?"

a hairdrier

a suitcase

a new dress for Sue's party

today's newspaper

chocolates

new shoes

some aspirin

envelopes

a tennis racket

a bunch of roses

a haircut

fish for lunch

some bread

a doll

a steak

nails

a cookbook

some butter

apples

an alarm clock