

Debate : Fashion contributes to society

FOR

Agnès Pihuit
my-teacher.fr

1. A good appearance makes a person look younger, feel relaxed and confident.

2. A good appearance may help people make a better impression on social contacts.

3. When people are getting old, they should pay more attention to their appearance.

4. Life is colorful, so people should not be dressed in dull colors but use exciting new colors.

5. The way people dress helps them preserve a sense of their own value and personality.

6. Investing in jewelry is a better hedge against inflation than saving paper money.

7. Fashion adds spice to life with its rich color, variety, and beauty.

8. Men and women follow fashions in order to please each other and themselves.

10. There is no commercial exploitation of women because a huge demand for new styles always exists.

9. Mass production makes well-designed clothes cheap, available to everyone.

11. These days men are fashion-conscious, too. They pay more attention to hairstyles, shirts, suits, shoes, belts, and so on.

HELP WANTED
12. The fashion industry is an enormous one. It provides employment for people like textile workers, designers, and shopkeepers.

13. The fashion industry has helped industrial research in the sense that a lot of new materials, Nylon, Rayon, Orlon, Dacron, have been made to meet the demand of the consumers.

14. The fashion industry has become a huge import-export business and it is important in World trade.

15. Being well dressed is of psychological importance because confidence in one's appearance leads to confidence in one's success in life.

16. The tourist industry requires that citizens look well-dressed and prosperous.

17. People with good stylish clothes present a good image for the nation.

